Not many places in the world offer a timeless lifestyle the way Ubud does; where culture, religion and art blend together to create a certain irresistible charm that has attracted many artists and artistic figures from all over the planet for decades.

An idyllic village with beautiful rice terraces, with the intoxicating sounds of gamelan and serenity in the air, Ubud is a living photograph of the traditional Balinese life, nesting amidst the bustling cosmopolitan life surrounding it.

The Komaneka Resorts are created by the hands of a couple born and raised in Ubud. Carefully putting together its ideal settings, Koman Suteja and his wife, Mansri, an architect, selected luxuriant landscapes amidst larger settings of village life.

It started in 1998 with a 20-rooms property in the lively Monkey Forest Road. Guests are invited to experience an oasis of serenity in a colorful busy street with wonderful shops and restaurants.

After operated for 3 years, Komaneka opened a more tranquil property in Tanggayuda with 20 villas dedicated to honeymooners and couples in romantic getaways.

By 2008, an enchanting property is created in a spectacular setting of Bisma Street. This property features 40 rooms and villas in a 4-storey building leans to the cliff, overlooking the Campuhan river valley with its sloping coconut groves and rice fields, By September 2011 a 30-rooms and 2 Rooof-top villa is opened that located in the lively Monkey Forest Road, a 100 meters from the 1st Komaneka.

Guests in every property can learn more about Balinese culture through private lessons in dance, wood-carving, painting, cooking, wearing traditional attire, and even how to create a traditional Balinese offering. At the same time, Guests are also invited to enjoy Komaneka's extensive spa facilities for a happy and healthy holiday. Indulge in a wide range of massage treatments, relax in steam room and jacuzzi, all set amidst tranquil ponds and soothing atmosphere.

Designed to reflect a contemporary interpretation of traditional Balinese style and architecture, the resorts are fully managed by local professionals, making them the perfect gateway to enjoy an authentic Balinese hospitality experience.

During its 13 years, Komaneka has received several recognitions, including:
